COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS FROM CITIZENS – None

REGULAR BUSINESS

Consider New Sign Plan for the Jewish Discovery Center Located at N58W6204 Columbia Road; And Action Thereon.

Planner Censky explained that the Peltz Center for Jewish Life has leased space on Columbia Road and is opening up a Jewish Discovery Center. They have proposed a sign for the Center, which meets City Code.

Petitioner Rabbi Moshe Luchins was in attendance and explained that the goal of the Center is to engage the Cedarburg and Grafton communities and tourists to overcome any stigma attached to Judaism, and to provide a place where individuals can ask questions and learn more about the faith. The Center will offer arts and crafts for children, prepackaged deli items and an art gallery. Rabbi Luchins added that he and his family have been warmly welcomed into this community, and Commissioners took the opportunity to welcome them as well.

Action:

Commissioner Kubala made a motion to approve the sign as proposed. Council Member Forbes seconded the motion. Motion carried without a negative vote with Commissioners Smith and Krimmel excused.

A brief discussion occurred on the windmill at Immanuel Cemetery. This item may be added to a future agenda.

ADJOURNMENT

A motion was made by Commissioner Pape, seconded by Commissioner Kubala, to adjourn the meeting at 7:16 p.m. Motion carried without a negative vote with Commissioners Smith and Krimmel excused.
